

QEI Code of Ethics

Every certification candidate is required to sign a document attesting that he or she will follow the NAEC Code of Ethics. NAEC Code of Ethics is as follows:

In studying to become a NAEC qualified elevator inspector, studying to renew my certification and working as a NAEC certified technician, I understand and agree to follow all elements of the NAEC Code of Ethics as follows:

- Providing falsified or misleading information related to my certification application or renewal constitutes good and sufficient grounds for the immediate cancellation of my certification.
- Cheating or receiving help of any type not authorized by the NAEC on any examination or test constitutes good and sufficient grounds for the immediate cancellation of my NAEC certification.
- Releasing confidential examination materials or participating in fraudulent test taking practices constitutes good and sufficient grounds for the immediate cancellation of my NAEC certification.
- Providing falsified or misleading information on work-related documents, reports, and logs while working as a candidate constitutes good and sufficient grounds for the immediate cancellation of my certification.
- Failing to follow related industry codes, standards, local and federal laws related to my work-related duties, and company work rules constitutes good and sufficient grounds for the immediate cancellation of my certification.
- Failing to provide notification within 30 days if I become incapable of performing the full scope of duties, or incapable of fulfilling the requirements of the certification.

I understand that NAEC is the owner of the QEI Certification. If I fail to follow the approved uses of certification program rules, or requirements, ID, logo or wall certificate this will result in the issuance of a cease-and-desist letter from NAEC that will revoke my NAEC certification or candidate status. If my Certification status is revoked, withdrawn, or suspended, I am required to return my QEI Certification card and wall certificate and no longer be authorized to use the QEI certified status, or logo.

Signature:	Date:
Printed First and Last Name:

Submit to certification@naec.org