

QEI Candidate Confidentiality Agreement

To ensure the integrity of NAEC's Certified Qualified Elevator Inspector exam, all candidates are required to sign a candidate confidentiality agreement as follows:

I understand, acknowledge, and agree:

- That the questions and answers of the exam are the exclusive and confidential property of NAEC, and they are protected by NAEC's intellectual property rights.
- That I will not disclose the exam questions or answer or discuss any of the content of the exam materials with any person, without prior written approval of NAEC.
- That I will not remove from the examination room any exam materials of any kind provided to me or any other material related to the exam, including, without limitation, any notes, or calculations.
- That I will not copy or attempt to make copies (written, photocopied, or otherwise) of any exam material, including, without limitation, any exam questions, or answers.
- That I will not sell, license, distribute, give away, or obtain from any other source other than NAEC the exam materials, questions, or answers.
- That I will not create or contribute to the certification efforts competitive with NAEC's scheme for a period of three years from taking the examination.
- I agree that my obligations under this agreement shall continue in effect after the examination and, if applicable, after termination of my certification, regardless of the reason or reasons for termination, and whether such termination is voluntary or involuntary.

I agree that any violations of this agreement shall constitute cause for revoking my certification.
