

CET CODE OF ETHICS CERTIFICATION

Every certification candidate is required to sign a document attesting that he or she will follow the NAEC Code of Ethics. NAEC Code of Ethics is as follows: In studying to become a NAEC certified technician, studying to renew my certification and working as a NAEC certified technician, I understand and agree to follow all elements of the NAEC Code of Ethics as follows:

- Providing falsified or misleading information related to my certification application or renewal constitutes good and sufficient grounds for the immediate cancellation of my certification.
- Cheating or receiving help of any type not authorized by the NAEC on any examination or test constitutes good and sufficient grounds for the immediate cancellation of my NAEC certification or candidate status.
- Releasing confidential examination materials or participating in fraudulent test taking practices constitutes good and sufficient grounds for the immediate cancellation of my NAEC certification or candidate status.
- Providing falsified or misleading information on work-related documents, reports, and logs while working as a candidate constitutes good and sufficient grounds for the immediate cancellation of my certification or candidate status.
- Failing to follow related industry codes, standards, local and federal laws related to my work-related duties, and company work rules constitutes good and sufficient grounds for the immediate cancellation of my certification or candidate status.
- Failing to provide notification within 30 days if I become incapable of performing the full scope of duties, or incapable of fulfilling the requirements of the certification.

I understand that NAEC is the owner of the CET Certificate, if I fail to follow the approved uses of the certification program, logos, rules or requirements, this will result in the issuance of a cease and desist letter from NAEC that will revoke my NAEC certification or candidate status. If my Certification status is revoked, withdrawn or suspended, I am required to return my CET Certification card and no longer be authorized to use the CET certified status, or logo.
