On the Day of the Examination

Test Admission Procedures

Applicants must have two proctors for their examination. Both proctors must be physically present and within sight of the applicant during the examination. Both proctors must review the proctoring statement and return a signed and notarized copy of the proctor statement for the applicant to receive certification.

Proctoring Rules

The following are the rules enforced at all test administrations:

- The area where the examinee will be taking the examination must be located in a low traffic, quiet, and well-lit area -- preferably located in an isolated room. In order to meet this requirement, it may be necessary to have the applicant take the examination after normal working hours. In such instances, however, the applicant should have an opportunity to rest before going directly from the job site to the examination.

- Proctors will need to be physically present and have a direct line of sight of the examinee during the entire exam.
- The CET exam must be proctored by 2 Proctors. The first proctor must be an Officer of the Company where the examinee is employed. The second proctor must be another competent adult who is not related to the examinee, is not a supervisor of the examinee, and is not an examinee in the program. Please provide copies of the examinee & Proctors driver's license along with proctoring statement.
- The examinee must present a legal picture identification card to the proctor before taking each examination. A legal picture identification card may include a valid driver's license, a military reserve identification card, an employee badge, or a state issued picture identification card. If the individual does not have a legal picture identification card, then the examination may not be given to the individual. The picture identification must be checked by the proctor to make sure that it is valid and has not been tampered with and that the picture and name match the individual presenting the identification card.
- The examinee will not be permitted to bring any books (other than the CET Certification approved references for this exam), cell phones or personal belongings to the test area. The allowed books are outlined above under the authorized reference list. The examinee may bring in an electronic device such as a laptop or tablet if the authorized references are in PDF format and are located on said electronic device. Proctors will check all reference materials brought by the examinee to ensure only those on the approved list are used. Once the examinee starts the exam, they shall not leave the testing center until they have completed the exam. The proctors shall provide plain white paper and pencil to the examinee and must collect all distributed paper and pencils before the examinee leaves the examination area. Proctors must shred all distributed paper upon completion of the exam.
- The examinee may not use any other programs on the respective computer. Prior to the examinee logging in on the computer, the proctor must make certain that all other computer programs are closed.
- There is to be no talking during the examination process. The proctors may only answer questions related to the administrative functions of the proctoring and may not provide the examinee with coaching or help with the technical content of the examination.
- There is to be no discussing or copying of the testing material during or after the test by either the examinee or proctor.
- If an examinee is handicapped or physically challenged to a degree that could adversely affect the examinee's ability to take and complete the on-line examinations, then contact, NAEC Certification Department at 770-760-9660 prior to the examination date and time. The contact is necessary to make certain that reasonable accommodations have been made of the respective examinee.
- At the completion of the examination, complete the proctoring statement and return all pages of the proctoring statement and an incident report if applicable to NAEC. Please note that the certification cannot be issued without the proctoring statement. Please make sure form is filled out completely before returning and that proctors 1 and 2 have signed the statement regarding proctoring instructions, and is notarized. Please return copies of driver's license for both pages of the proctoring statement.
- Anyone falsifying any documents and not following these examinations procedures could be severely penalized, including suspension or revocation of their certification. Also, such activities could also be in violation of city, state, and federal laws.

Dismissal

Any applicant who is observed engaging in any misconduct will be subject to dismissal from the examination, may be barred from future examinations for a period ranging from one year to permanent dismissal, and may be required to forfeit his/her current application fee and /or period of eligibility.

Examination Irregularities

Any problems, suspected instances of cheating, alleged inappropriate examination administration, environmental testing conditions severe enough to cause disruption of the process, noise or other irregularities related to test administration should be addressed to the onsite proctor or to staff. All such matters will be reported, investigated, and subject to further action based upon policies and procedures adopted by NAEC. Any testing irregularity should be reported to NAEC within 1 business day by filling an incident report located in Appendix E of the applicant handbook or located on the NAEC certification webpage here. If there is a power disruption or computer problem, please contact NAEC Certification Department at 770-760-9660. NAEC will take all available precautions to ensure the appropriate and secure handling of completed tests. In the rare and extreme case in which the tests become lost or unreadable, applicants will be required to undergo retesting, without being charged a re-examination fee.

After the Examination

Notification of Results

Test has been completed

John Smith

You completed the CET Certification Exam on 2025-04-16

We appreciate your patience and understand your eagerness to receive your CET Certification.

As this exam is currently in its beta testing phase, we must first reach a total of 30 completed exams before moving forward.

Once that number is reached, we will perform a thorough analysis, including a cut score study to determine the official passing score. Following this, all exams will be graded.

At this time, you are not yet certified as a CET, and no digital badges will be issued until the grading process is complete.

NAEC will notify you once results are available and inform you of your exam status.

Thank you again for your understanding and patience as we work to deliver a high-quality, industry-recognized certification.

Thanks!

Following is an outline of information needed by individuals who become certified. More detailed information will be provided with the pass letter.

Appropriate Use of the Certification

Upon awarding of a CET Certification, the certificant may use the respective NAEC CET logo and/or status on his or her uniform, clothes, business cards, letterhead, and other business items. In all instances, the use of the CET logo and/or status is an individual-based logo and/or status and may only be used by the individual duly authorized by the NAEC Certification Board. Also, use of the NAEC CET logo and/or status is prohibited in such a manner as to bring the NAEC or the NAEC Certification Board and program into disrepute or in a manner that is considered misleading.

Use of the NAEC CET logo and/or status in accordance with these provisions by an individual is authorized if that individual is certified as a CET by the NAEC Certification Board.
